

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH OF MANITOBA

PRACTICE DIRECTION

CIVIL UNCONTESTED LIST ADJOURNMENTS

Where a matter on the civil uncontested list appears on the list for a second time, the matter will be adjourned to the contested list, adjourned sine die, or struck from the list. The matter can be brought back on the uncontested list by requisition. On the third appearance the matter must be dealt with, failing which it will be struck off on a without prejudice basis unless a judge grants an adjournment. An adjournment shall be granted only in exceptional circumstances.

Coming into effect

This Practice Direction comes into effect on January 3, 2012.
