

PRACTICE DIRECTION

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH OF MANITOBA

RE: ELECTRONIC FILING FOR JUDICIAL REVIEWS

Effective Monday, January 23, 2017, in Winnipeg Centre only, any application to the Court of Queen's Bench for judicial review shall be filed electronically. Paper or manual applications will not be accepted.

An E-Filing Technical Directions Bulletin can be found on the Court's website. It specifies the process and requirements for e-filing.

For further clarity, the nature of judicial reviews subject to this Practice Direction will include those contemplated by Queen's Bench Rule 68 and other appeals or reviews on record from administrative tribunals. These would include, for example, review of labour arbitration awards and other appeals or reviews on record as contemplated in various statutes. Questions respecting the scope of judicial review may be directed to Sandra Prairie, Registrar.

Coming into effect

This Practice Direction comes into effect immediately.

ISSUED BY:

The Honourable Chief Justice Glenn D. Joyal
Court of Queen's Bench (Manitoba)

DATE: December 14, 2016